Inspiration for the week

Being real people of faith comes with a price. Have you ever been seen as unpopular, out of sync or peculiar because of your faith? St. Peter tells us, "If you are insulted for the name of Christ, blessed are you." If being a Christian comes easy for us, then we ought to rethink how we approach our faith. Developing habits of prayer, living in accord with the Gospel, setting time aside each week for the practice of our faith, seeing our relationship with Christ as the center and focus of our families all come with sacrifice. We are going to look differently than other folks and we ought to. We are going to find ourselves doing less of the things we are "supposed to do" and more of the things we know we "ought to do or want to do." This often means resisting secular tides and putting our boats into different waters. If this is what helps us know the one true God, then so be it. It also brings us to eternal life.

LITURGICAL LIFE

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading

Those closest to Jesus in his life gathered together in the immediate aftermath of his resurrection and ascension. What sort of mixed emotions do you think they experienced?

Second Reading

Peter encourages those who suffer for the faith to "glorify God." When have you experienced this type of redemptive suffering?

Gospel Reading

At the conclusion of his farewell discourse, Jesus offers a prayer of petition to the Father for his disciples. How do you find Jesus' words comforting?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

Everlasting Easter

The Easter season is almost over. This season is always a tougher one for us Catholics. We get Advent and Lent: preparation. We are on board with Christmas, mainly because we like to keep up our decorations until someone tells us the exact day we must take them down. But Easter as a season is a bit more difficult to observe. The rest of the world has moved on. There are no Easter eggs left in store windows and all those religious movies on television have given way to reruns or season-ending episodes. It just feels like Easter anywhere ... except in the Church.

The truth is that it should feel like Easter all year-round in the Church. Every Sunday, we celebrate a mini-Easter. Our Lord is ALIVE! He is risen and alive, and we need to celebrate. We also need to be about the work of the Lord. We are an Easter people who bear witness to his resurrection through our stewardship. If he had never risen, then we would be called to nothing by no one. But he lives! As this Easter season is drawing to a close, it is prudent to reflect on what his death and resurrection mean for each of us. How has it changed us? How does it motivate us? It doesn't look like Easter in most corners of the world, so it is up to us to bring a little Easter to every place we go and to everyone we meet.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Why Kneel?

Question:

Why do we kneel at Mass?

Answer:

Since the beginnings of the Church, kneeling has been a key posture of prayer. We see Sts. Peter and Paul in the Acts of the Apostles kneeling in prayer. Early in the 4th century, the Council of Nicea prohibited kneeling on Sundays and special feasts. Kneeling began more as a posture of penance for our sins, but in the history of the Church, it has become more a posture of reverence and solemn prayer.

You will notice that the times we kneel at Mass are tied to the consecration of the holy Eucharist. We kneel in both anticipation of what will occur and then in awe of what has taken place: Jesus Christ becomes truly present to us under the guise of bread and wine. The profoundness of this event has over time led the Church to mandate in the current General Instruction of the Roman Missal that kneeling is the only posture allowed during this time. The sheer awesomeness of the holy Eucharist leads us to fall to our knees in wonder and thanksgiving.

HEALTH AND WELLNESS

3 EASY STEPS

To Keeping Yourself & Others Healthy!

We are cautioned to be especially careful during the Coronavirus outbreak. Here are some simple ways to keep sickness away.

Wash Your Hands

Wash your hands for at least 20 seconds using soap and water. If you can't wash your hands, use hand sanitizer frequently.

Don't Touch Your Face

Especially around the eyes, nose and mouth. If you must sneeze, use a tissue or your arm.

Keep Your Distance

Practice social distancing during this epidemic and stay away from large groups. Instead, call, email or check up on family and friends using social media.

*Jesus raised his eyes
to heaven and said, “Father, the hour has come. Give glory to your son, so that your son may glorify you, just as you gave him authority
over all people, so that your son may give eternal life to all you gave him. Now this is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent,
Jesus Christ.”*

DEAR ST. JOHN FISHER FAMILY,

One of the greatest joys I have received recently has been to be able to celebrate Holy Mass with many of you physically present! It isn't the same not having you there. For this, I am truly grateful to all of you who brave it out, and come.

I want to express my gratitude especially to all of those who volunteer to make this possible. I am especially grateful to the team that arrives before the masses and ushers people to their seats, and then after each mass, sanitizes all the pews. It includes the musicians, lectors, servers and camera-person. It includes the Altar Society that continues to work in the background taking care of my alb, the corporals and purificators. It includes Johanna Compean from EP Compean Funeral Directors who donates the disinfectant. It includes the deacons who continue to live-out their ministry faithfully.

I am also deeply grateful to our employees, Jackie Arellano, Lupita Cruz, Karina Dauz, Robert Salazar, and Joe Wiley for their ongoing service in helping me to keep the parish running.

And I am especially grateful to all of you who have been bringing food or giving money for food to me and the seminarians who are staying with me. There are so many of you, and I don't want to mention names because I know I will forget someone, but you know who you are, and thank you! I am also grateful to the ladies who help me clean my house.

There have been many of you who have volunteered to clean the church, and some of you who help in mowing the grass and doing other services for our parish. I am very grateful!

Finally, I am grateful to all of you who follow the Mass faithfully through Facebook. I understand very well that it is still not safe to be in public places while the possibility of infection is still very high. You remind us that our spiritual connection transcends time and space.

So to everyone, let us continue to stay united as together we make it through these tough times. Let us discover God's look of love in every moment, especially when things get tough. We will discover how He never abandons us!

P. Jesse Garcia

QUERIDA FAMILIA DE ST. JUAN FISHER,

¡Una de las alegrías más grandes que he recibido recientemente ha sido poder celebrar la Santa Misa con muchos de ustedes físicamente presentes! No es lo mismo no tenerlos allí. Por esto, estoy realmente agradecido con todos ustedes que con valentía vienen.

Quiero expresar mi gratitud especialmente a todos aquellos que se ofrecen como voluntarios para que la Misa sea posible. Estoy especialmente agradecido con el equipo que llega antes de las misas y acompaña a las personas a sus asientos, y luego, después de cada misa, desinfecta todas las bancas. Los coordinadores son Tony y Maury Rojas. Gracias!

Quiero también agradecer a los músicos, lectores, servidores y camarógrafo. Incluye la Sociedad del Altar que continúa trabajando en el fondo cuidando de mi alba, las vestiduras, los corporales y purificadores.

Agradezco mucho a Johanna Compean de la funeraria EP Compean que dona el desinfectante. Agradezco a los diáconos que continúan viviendo fielmente su ministerio.

También estoy profundamente agradecido con nuestros empleados, Jackie Arellano (secretaria), Lupita Cruz (asistente), Karina Dauz (contadora), Robert Salazar (gerente de instalaciones) y Joe Wiley (director de administración parroquial) que me ayudan a que siga funcionando la parroquia.

Y estoy particularmente agradecido con todos ustedes que han estado trayendo comida o dándome dinero para comida a mí y a los seminaristas que se quedan conmigo. Hay tantos de ustedes, y no quiero mencionar nombres porque sé que olvidaré a alguien, pero ustedes saben quiénes son, ¡y gracias! También estoy agradecido con las señoras que me ayudan a limpiar mi casa.

Muchos de ustedes se han ofrecido como voluntarios para limpiar la iglesia, y algunos de ustedes ayudan a cortar el césped y hacer otros servicios para nuestra parroquia. ¡Estoy muy agradecido!

Finalmente, les agradezco a todos ustedes que siguen fielmente la Misa a través de Facebook. Entiendo muy bien que todavía no es seguro estar en lugares públicos, mientras que la posibilidad de infección sigue siendo muy alta. Ustedes nos recuerdan que los lazos espirituales trascienden el espacio y el tiempo.

Entonces, a todos, sigamos unidos mientras avanzamos juntos en estos tiempos difíciles. Descubramos la mirada de amor de Dios en cada momento, especialmente cuando las cosas se ponen difíciles. ¡Descubriremos cómo Él nunca nos abandona!

P. Jesse Garcia

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

What does faith and religion do for us? Ultimately, they remind us of some truths we conveniently forget: we are created by a loving God, we have imperfections, we sin, we need to be forgiven, we have a mission and a purpose, it's not just about us, and we hunger for the joy of salvation. These are human truths that are not dependent upon whether we like them. Ignoring them places us on the paths of comfort and satisfaction as we blindly pursue the busyness and superficiality of our empty lives. Instead of pursuing supernatural and lasting pleasure, we choose things that are easier and quicker to obtain: sex, drugs, travel, houses, cars, fame, popularity, self-achievement and satisfaction, physical enjoyment, and the like.

We may also find ourselves falling victim to more negative responses to what life brings us: anger, envy, lust, pride, gluttony, greed, and apathy. Human hearts can become so hardened to the truth that violence becomes the response of first choice. Being a Christian is hard! Yet, as Pope Francis reminds us, the Church needs to be a field hospital that has to be prepared to provide people with the remedy they need. What we need is Jesus Christ. The Church, with all of the glory of the sacraments, exists to help make Christ present and real for us. Once we find Christ, we find joy. Joy is a matter of the heart that is beyond pleasure and happiness. It is not found in some earthly satisfaction, only in Christ.

Once we accept that we are destined to be in Christ, then we will discover eternal life. Namely, "that they should know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ." It is easy to conveniently forget truth and pursue illusions immediately within our grasp, but at what price? A man celebrating 60 years of marriage remarked that it took so much effort and so many attempts to convince his wife that they were meant to be together. Even his friends told him he was foolish. He easily could have given up and pursued other interests. He chose to persevere and is so grateful that he made that choice because he now has a pearl of great price. Do we see a value in persevering in our faith regardless of the cost? If we don't take the risk, we could lose more than we know.
